Wabash Returns

Capt. and Mrs. Fred Stackpole arrived at Wrangell Monday evening, having come from Loring with the Captain's boat, Wabash. As this was their first visit since their marriage at Loring in November, the usual serenade was offered by the townspeople who gathered up the brass band and other instruments that could be utilized in making a grand discord.

Capt. and Mrs. Stackpole have taken rooms at the Wrangell Hotel until their home on Stikine Avenue is put in shape for occupancy.

Social - Whist

At the Red Hen's Hall, Thursday evening February 15, at 8 o'clock, the ladies of the Catholic Church will have a Social and Progressive Whist in honor of St. Valentine's Day. The proceeds will be used for the purchase of an organ for the Church. Admission 75 and 35 cents. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Improving Shop

J. J. McTague, proprietor of the Wrangell Market, has been making several improvements to the storage facilities of the shop. The large ice box formerly in the Thlinget Trading Company's store has been placed in the rear of the shop. Another addition to the rear of the shop is to be made and an ice plant ordered, which when installed will give every aid in keeping meat during the summer months.

Ball Game

A game of Indoor Baseball has been arranged for Friday evening February 9th at the skating rink. A small admission fee of 25 cents will be charged for adults and children's tickets have been marked down to the special sale price of $1.20 per dozen. The game will be called at 8:30.

Made the Shoes Fit.

The Maoris, inhabitants of the south sea islands, found themselves once in possession of a supply of shoes. Instead of seeking suitable sizes they cut off their toes to fit the shoes whenever it was necessary.

About The Firemen

The Alert Fire Company met Monday evening at the Town Council rooms. The election of officers for the ensuing six months, which was deferred from the January meeting, resulted in the following becoming the choice of the Company: President, J. E. Worden; Vice President, J. C. Ensley; Secretary, H. F. Dawes; Treasurer, J. G. Grant; Foreman, Oscar Carlson. The President and Treasurer were the only officeholders to be reelected. The Treasurer was not called upon to furnish bonds for the strong-box of the company still contains only five cents which fact shows that the company is holding its own.

The application of E. Campbell for membership was favorably acted upon and a certificate of membership made out.

The firemen's Ball which is to be held at Red Men's Hall, Thursday February 22, was discussed pro and con and it was decided that a supper is to be served at the hall. Admission will be $1.00 for gentlemen, ladies free.

As the committee is arranging for some articles of apparel or decoration for the firemen to don on that eventful evening, all firemen are requested to call at the Council Rooms at 7:00 o'clock sharp on the evening of February 20th and receive their mark of honor.

Current Changes

The entire population of Alaska seacoast was brought to "Attention" this week by a startling story of alleged change in course of the Japan Current which is thought by many to be swinging to the eastward, closer to the Alaskan shore line. Coming, as it does, with unusually warm weather and the reports of steamer Northwestern that she was 57 miles ahead of her log going north to Cordova and 40 miles behind going south, has lead many to believe that changes are actually being evidenced in the course of that stream.

The average maximum temperature from January 17 to 27 at the Capitol City was 37 and the average minimum 34, figures that are quite gratifying to residents and approaching the unbelievable to the average citizen of the eastern states.

If the Japan Current is yielding to a wanderlust, Alaskans will feel grateful that it moves toward our shores and not away from them.

St. Philip's Church

"Some common everyday things that we overlook", will be the theme of the sermon at St. Philip's Church next Sunday evening, February 11. All are cordially invited to attend the services.

Successful Ball

The leap year ball given at the Red Men's Hall last Friday evening was quite a successful event. Although the gentlemen were admitted free, a great many paid a good price for the fun in the way of fines for such grave offenses as walking across the floor unattended or refusing a lady a dance.

Despite the warning given last week, several bachelors were present and enjoyed the evening with the not so distinguished gentlemen.

Klawock Fishboat

Messrs. T. Collins, R. Collins, J. Jackson, J. Williams and J. Steiny of Klawock and Peter Kitka, of Sitka, came in from Klawock Wednesday with a newly built fishboat to be inspected by Customs Officer, F. E. Bronson.

A Horse on Him.

King Richard III, had offered his kingdom for a horse. "Ha," exclaimed Richmond, "I'll have to go and nag him a little." Grasping a property sword, he rushed to the fray.—Chicago Tribune.

Trappers Visit Wrangell

Messrs Strong and Shangle, who are trapping in the Stikine county this winter made a short visit in Wrangell this week. They were taken back up river to the ice Wednesday by A. C. Lawrence in his gasboat, Scout.

Eddie Kalkins and his dog team accompanied them on the trip. Kalkins will mush inside to some mining claims to do assessment work and will be gone about six weeks.

Largest Pile Driver

What is probably the largest pile driver north of Puget Sound was finished Saturday and tried out Sunday on some piles for the sawmill wharf. The height from the deck of the scow to pulley to top is 75 feet and the driver can handle the largest piles.

J. E. Sayles, owner of the driver has a seasons work already engaged with the canneries now under construction at nearby points.

NOTICE OF MARSHAL'S SALE

United States of America
District of Alaska

Public notice is hereby given, that by virtue of a writ of Fieri Facias (or execution), dated January 15, A. D. 1912, issued out of the District Court, of the United States for the First Division, District of Alaska, on a judgment rendered in said Court, on the 12th day of October, A. D. 1911, in favor of F. M. Jordan and against the El Capitan Mining Company, I have this 15th day of January, A. D. 1912, levied upon the following described personal property and real estate, situated in the District of Alaska, to-wit:

Those certain mining claims called the J. C. Rathbun Marble claim, the George Pulver Marble claim, and the George Kelly Marble claim, all of which were located on the 8th day of September, 1902, by J. C. Rathbun, Libbie C. Rathbun, Milton L. Van Dyke, Laura L. Van Dyke, George Pulver, Sallie B. Pulver, F. W. Woodman and E. A. P. Woodman, as an association of persons, the same being situated about eight miles from Shakan post office upon or near Klawak Passage, Prince of Wales Islands, District of Alaska, each of which claims containing one hundred and sixty acres and all as shown by the location certificates filed and now of record in the office of the Recorder of the Ketchikan Mining District, in Vol. 1 of Mines, at pages Rathbun, 464; Pulver, 465; Kelly, 463;

Those certain mining claims called the "W. A. Finn" marble mining claim, the R. L. Fox marble mining claims, and the Fielden Smith marble mining claim, as located, surveyed, recorded and as held by the locators thereof, situated in Wrangell Mining District, District of Alaska, described as follows: Each and all of said marble mining claims were located on the 15th day of January, 1900, by Louisa Finn, W. A. Finn, Fielden Smith, Eliza J. Smith, R. L. Fox, J. Q. Denton and Lucy Denton, as an association of persons, and the same being situated about eight miles from Shakan post office upon or near Klawak Passage, Prince of Wales Islands, District of Alaska, each of said claims containing one hundred and sixty acres, and all as shown by the location certificates thereof filed and now of record in the office of the recorder of said Wrangell Mining District, in Vol. 12 of mines, at pages 79, 80 and 81 thereof, and to which reference is hereby made;

One hundred and sixty acres of placer mining ground, being the Milton Van Dyke marble claim, situated on the Klawak Passage on the west coast of Prince of Wales Island, in the Ketchikan Mining District, District of Alaska, described as follows: to-wit: Beginning at the northeast corner of the W. A. Finn Marble claim, thence running westerly 320 rods; thence northerly 80 rods; thence easterly 320 rods; thence southerly 80 rods to the place of beginning, the location notice whereof is recorded in the office of the Recorder of the Ketchikan Mining District in Vol. 2 of Mines, at page 305;

One hundred and sixty acres of placer ground, being the Seattle marble claim, situated on the Klawak Passage, on the west coast of Prince of Wales Island, in the Ketchikan Mining District, in the District of Alaska, described as follows: Beginning at the southeast corner of the R. L. Fox marble claim, thence running westerly 320 rods, thence southerly 80 rods, thence easterly about 320 rods to tide water; thence along the meander line to place of beginning, the location whereof is recorded in the office of the Recorder of the Ketchikan Mining District in Vol. 2 of Mines, at page 303;

One hundred and sixty acres of placer mining ground, being the Ridge marble claim, situated on the Klawak Passage, on the west coast of Prince of Wales Island in the Ketchikan Mining District, in the District of Alaska, described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at the northeast corner of the Milton Van Dyke marble claim, thence running westerly 320 rods; thence northerly 80 rods; thence easterly 320 rods; thence southerly 80 rods to the place of beginning, the location notice whereof is recorded in the office of the Recorder of the Ketchikan Mining District, in Vol. 2 of Mines at page 302.

One hundred and sixty acres of placer mining ground, being the South marble claim, situated on the Klawak Passage, on the west coast of Prince of Wales Island, in the Ketchikan Mining District, in the District of Alaska, described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at the southeast corner of the Seattle marble claim, thence running westerly to the southwest corner of said Seattle claim, thence southerly 80 rods to tide water; thence easterly 320 rods, or to tide water, thence along the meander line to the place of beginning, the location notice whereof is recorded in the office of the Recorder of the Ketchikan Mining District, in Vol. 2 of Mines at page 304.

And all re-locations and amended locations, if any, of each and all of said claims,

Also the following machinery, being located at or near the quarry upon said mining property, to-wit:

Three gang saws to saw 10'0"x6"x6'
Two 48"x8' Freni sand pumps for feeding sand or steel to saws.

One transfer car,
Three block cars for gangs.
One ton saw blades.
One 50 H. P. Atlas engine.
One 60 H. P. Boiler,
One 40 H. P. Boiler,
One 20 H. P. Boiler with winch attached.

One 6 1-2 Sullivan Channeller.
One V. X. Sullivan Channeller.
One 10-ton hand derrick with guys.
One drill press, blacksmith shop, blacksmith tools and forge.
One steam pump.

Pulleys, shafting and belting to run all machinery, and all derricks, tools, steel, ropes, tracks, cars and other personal property of whatsoever nature now on said mining property or used for the operation of the same;

Also two barges used in connection with the said mining property and lying in the waters adjacent thereto, one being 22x88 feet and the other being 12x30 feet;

Together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any way appertaining;

And that I will, accordingly, offer said personal property and real estate for sale, at public vendue to the highest and best bidder, for cash, on the 29th day of February, A. D. 1912, at 2 o'clock P. M. on the above mentioned premises situated about eight miles from Shakan, Prince of Wales Island, Alaska.

Dated January 5th, A. D. 1912.

HOW TO LIVE.

Life lengthened to its fullest is short enough, and the man who lives it out on straight lines, giving lift for lift and lick for lick, not overjoyous in periods of personal success and achievement nor yet too despondent when the game goes against him, keeping in mind always the supreme value of the average in all things, will leave the world still so much in love with it that he would like to linger yet for awhile to work and dream in its pleasant and fruitful pastures.

School Notes

Leona Lindman, Correspondent

The attendance in both rooms has been exceptionally good this week.

The 3rd grade has completed the Third Reader and is doing supplementary Dramatic work.

The Drawing Classes are making Valentines for the 14th.

The second grade is struggling with the Multiplication tables.

Martha Turvo has been promoted to the 2nd grade.

Miss Pritchett was absent Friday on account of illness, and Weston Dalgety and Alice Kincaid substituted.

The seventh grade are feeling quite advanced these days. Since they are working in arithmetic with the Seniors, and are called "Juniors".

The Seniors expect to complete the eight grade arithmetic and get three months work in Algebra this year as a good start toward next years work, that is, if the citizens of the town see fit to add another room to the building so that there will be room enough to permit us to remain in school.

The matter of seating the children who are now in school has become a serious subject.

We had expected to give an Entertainment at the Red Men's Hall February 22, but as the Hall is to be in use that night, we will give our entertainment the night preceding. This entertainment will be for the benefit of the Seniors and an admission fee will be charged. Commencement program will be free, so the proceeds of this entertainment will be for defraying the expenses of commencement. We ask your patronage and will guarantee you an agreeable evening. Come out and help us.

Thor Hofstad has given up the janitor work and Carl Carlson has taken his place.

Marlin Big Game REPEATING RIFLES

The Special Smokeless Steel barrel, rifled deep on the Ballard system, creates perfect combustion, develops highest velocity and hurls the bullet with utmost accuracy and mightiest killing impact.

The mechanism is direct-acting, strong, simple and perfectly adjusted. It never clogs. The protecting wall of solid steel between your head and cartridge keeps rain, sleet, snow and all foreign matter from getting into the action. The side ejection throws shells away from line of sight and allows instant repeat shots always.

Built in perfect proportion throughout, in many high power calibres, it is a quick handling, powerful, accurate gun for all big game.

Every hunter should know all the Marlin characteristics. The Marlin Firearms Co. Send for our free catalog. Enclose 3 stamps for postage. 42 Willow Street New Haven, Conn.

The Baseball Bug

The baseball bug's the first we note,

A bug of tough and brazen throat, Whose ordinary tone of speech Is half a roar and half a screech. On bleachers he is mostly found, Creating divers kind of sound, Like "On you robber! Oh you chump,

Whoever chose you for an ump? Yah! slide you Hogan! That's the style,

What! Out? He made it by a mile!

Aw, get an umpire! He's too raw!

Ain't he the worst you ever saw? The baseball bug when he's at home

Has baseballitis in his dome, He reads the dope, he keeps the score,

At office, restaurant and store. He talks the game with wisdom deep.

He dreams and talks it in his sleep,

You well may smile with comfort snug

If you are not a baseball bug.

A Brooklyn woman who had spent a great deal of time in trying to teach her cook to make a good drawn butter gravy, but to little avail, had occasion severely to rebuke the domestic in the presence of others. "Ellen," said she sternly, "this gravy is absolutely bitter this evening."

"Indeed, I'm sorry, mum," came in lugubrious tones from the cook.

"How do you account for it, Ellen?" asked the mistress, persistent in her efforts to get at the bottom of the matter.

"I can't say, mum, unless it were the tear I dropped in it, mum."—New York Press.

A Statue That Never Was Built.

Mount Athos in Turkey was the spot contemplated by a sculptor for the most imposing monument that man had ever had. The sculptor, Dinocrates, offered to cut the huge mountain mass into the form of a statue of Alexander which should hold a city in the left hand and in the right a basin to receive all the waters that flowed from the mountain. Alexander was much taken by the plan, but rejected it for the practical reason that there was not food enough in the district to feed the inhabitants of the proposed town. So the canal cut by Xerxes to enable the ships to escape sailing round the mountain remained the greatest enterprise ever achieved there.

WINCHESTER

.401 Caliber

Self-Loading Rifle.

This new Winchester is reloaded by recoil, the repeating as well as the firing mechanism being under control of the trigger finger. A bullet fired from it strikes a blow of 2038 pounds—force enough to topple over the biggest game—penetration enough to reach the innermost vital spot. Tho wonderful in operation and powerful in execution, this rifle is neither complicated in construction nor cumbersome to handle.

It Hits Like The Hammer Of Thor.
